SMA DIT Committee Instagram page

The SMA Doctors-in-Training (DIT) Committee has recently launched a brand new Instagram page (@jrdocs.sg), to help junior doctors in social media spaces.

The needs of doctors in this day and age are arguably more diverse and complex than ever before. We need more voices and seek your help in supporting and advocating for junior doctors.

After the recent soft launch of the account, the DIT Instagram page has already gained more than 200 followers.

SMA also runs other dedicated Instagram pages for various focuses. You may follow them at the links below to stay up to date on the respective latest information:
